

OGS / FFTT BOOK AUTHORIZATION

The Oklahoma Genealogical Society has published two volumes on First Families of the Twin Territory members, their lineage and early Oklahoma ancestors. There will be additional books published by OGS in the future, and we hereby request your permission to include your family information in any publications in printed and/or electronic format. Only proven, documented facts will be published. For example, if you do not send proof of the birth date and place of your spouse, that information will not appear, or will be shown as undocumented. We request that you send the documents you wish to be included as soon as possible, or with your FFIT application.
